

3D TERM NOMINATION SURE

Germany Reported Planning 3-Point Peace Offer to Britain

Our Daily Bread

Sliced Thin by The Editor

ALEX. H. WASHBURN

Think Not, Speak Not

Gospel of an Impoverished Land

Life is full of generalities these troubled days — and not often is a generality worth talking about — but it behooves Americans occasionally to take a long view of the other fellow's doctrine so that they may appreciate their own all the more. The generality I am talking about today comes from Berlin.

Glen Burns Taken in Police Chase Up Highway No. 67

He and Negro Robert Haynie Held for Liquor

THEY HIT 90 MPH

Patrolman Humble Chases Them From Hope to Prescott

Glen Burns, white parolee from a federal penitentiary on a liquor conviction, and Robert Haynie, negro, were in local jails Tuesday following their arrest by state police in a wild chase up Highway 67 from Hope to Prescott.

Captured by State Patrolman Hollan Humble, Burns is held in the Prescott jail on a charge of reckless driving, and Haynie is in jail in Hope on a charge of transporting untaxed liquor, a charge also facing Burns in this county.

State police reported that Patrolman Humble encountered Burns and Haynie on Highway 67 between Hope and the Missouri Pacific viaduct early Sunday morning. Burns and Haynie fled toward Prescott. Patrolman Humble gave chase, and the flight reached 90 miles an hour, liquor being dumped out of the fugitives' car as it went.

Patrolman Humble forced their surrender in Prescott.

The reckless driving charge was preferred against Burns in Nevada county, and the charge of transporting untaxed liquor was placed against both the white man and the negro in Hempstead, the state police alleging the liquor was stopped while still in this county.

Burns was arraigned Monday before Justice Crowe in Prescott and fined $25 on the reckless driving charge. The state's case was presented by R. P. Hamby, deputy prosecutor.

Bodcaw to Hold Program July 20

Baseball Rally, Speaking, and Singing Planned

There will be a baseball rally and candidate speaking at Bodcaw Saturday, July 20.

Baseball teams from Cale, Bluff City, Patmos, Stamps, Morris Hill and Bodcaw will play during the day. The program, starting at 10 o'clock Saturday morning will continue throughout the day, and the Blackwood Brothers Quartet of Shreveport, La., will feature the night entertainment. The public is invited.

Three Persons Escape Injury in Car Wreck

Three persons escaped possible injury Monday afternoon when a car driven by Clyde L. May of Hope collided with another car driven by a Mr. Wallis of Edinburg, Texas. The accident occurred about 8 o'clock Monday afternoon at Sixth and Hervey streets.

Both cars were considerably damaged.

Relics of a prehistoric cult dating back more than 4,000 years have been found near Norwich, England.

A Thought

Ye shall not respect persons in judgement; but ye shall hear the small as well as the great; ye shall not be afraid of the face of man; for the judgement is God's; and the cause that is too hard for you, bring it unto me, and I will hear it.—Deuteronomy 1:17.

Under dateline of Berlin, July 6, the Associated Press reported "informed German sources" as replying to a peace offer by President Roosevelt in the following manner:

"Freedom of the press as outlined by the president exists practically nowhere, these sources said, because finance, industry, political parties, labor and other interests all work to hamstring the press. 'Freedom to express any opinion,' they pointed out, may be possible in a country with wide spaces like the United States, but in closely crowded areas like the German Reich it is impossible to permit everybody to say what he thinks. Twenty years of free expression under the German republic, these sources claimed, led only to 8 million unemployed and to destruction of religion and morals.

"The German people, they held, are perfectly happy to have the man who shoulders the responsibilities for Germany's fate also determine its opinion."

So much for a generality from Germany.

But here's one from our own United States—no dissertation by some learned person, but merely a reprint from an average American insurance publication, the American Agency Bulletin.

"The plain people of the United States believe firmly that their form of government and their way of life is the best solution that has yet been found to the problem of the gigantic community. They believe absolutely that the dignity of man, the rights of man and the sanctity of the soul are the bedrock... for the good life, for the only worthwhile existence on this earth.

"Democracy has given grace to the plain people of this country, it has given them hope. It is bred into their bone and their brain. They will not relinquish it. They will not be dissuaded from their destiny."

So much for an American generality.

One is the voice of a crowded, impoverished continent. The other, the voice of a thinly-populated nation spread over the richest, most powerful continent on earth.

Let us not be vainglorious. Let us be humbly glad that destiny has placed us in this fair land—and fiercely resolve to maintain ourselves rich and strong, knowing that wealth and strength are in the last analysis our greatest protection against the defeat and insanity and destruction that have overwhelmed Europe.

8 Hempstead Boys at Camp Robinson

Total of 800 Enrolled for 30-Day CMTC Course

Eight Hempstead county young men are enrolled as trainees in the Citizens Military Training Camp at Joseph T. Robinson. They are: James Simms, Thomas Cranford, Raymond Bright and Charles Bundy of Hope; George Revels, McNab; Edward Walkup, Troy Bland, and Troy E. Bland, Saratoga.

Bland is a "Red," or second-year.

(Continued on Page Three)

CRANIUM CRACKERS

Some Literary Words
The English language has been enriched by addition of names and phrases in literature which caught the public fancy, became commonplaces. You should be able to name the books and authors which contributed these five names.

1. Micawber.
2. Babbitt.
3. Lilliput.
4. Shylock.
5. Fagin.

Answers on Comic Page

Arrange Europe's Affairs, Recover Pre-War Colonies

Either This, or Invasion by Army of 600,000 Nazis

TO STRIKE FRIDAY

So Says Report From Switzerland — Ships Assembled

ROME — (AP) — Diplomatic circles heard Tuesday Adolf Hitler is preparing to make a last three-point offer to Great Britain for a war settlement which would spare the British isles from a devastating attack.

Diplomatic reports from Berlin indicated Hitler might make the offer to Britain in a speech before the Reichstag within the next few days. Count Ciano is planning tentatively to go to Berlin before Hitler speaks to confer with the Germans on terms as Premier Mussolini's representative, diplomatic sources said.

Private advices from Berlin indicated Hitler probably would offer Britain plans for:

1. European settlement of continental affairs.
2. Return to Germany of those colonies taken from her by the British after the World War.
3. Economic rehabilitation of Europe.

600,000 for Invasion

GRENOBLE, France — (AP) — Le Petit Dauphinois said Tuesday foreign diplomatic quarters in Switzerland heard that the projected attack on England by 600,000 Germans has been delayed because of differences in the high command, but the attack may be launched Friday night.

The Germans have assembled hundreds of ships for the attack, the newspaper said.

Italians Bomb Haifa

ROME — (AP) — Huge fires at Haifa, British oil port in Palestine, and crippling blows to units of Britain's Mediterranean fleet—including the 42,000-ton Battle Cruiser Hood—were reported by the Italian high command Tuesday.

Direct hits by Italian fliers on oil refineries and depots at the Holy Land port were said to have sent up flames that could be seen from airplane 120 miles away.

Coal Mine Blast Kills 45, Belief

Disaster Strikes Mine East of Johnstown, Pennsylvania

CONMAN, Pa. — (AP) — Mine Inspector W. H. Filer placed Monday night the probable death toll from a blast which shattered the Koppers Company's coal mine here at 45, with the known dead at 22. The inspector said:

"The 45 men missing in the mine could not have survived the blast. Twenty-two are now known to be dead."

A score of miners escaped after the explosion, five of them slightly burned.

Rescue squads worked for hours in a desperate effort to reach the trapped men. Communications to the village of 400, located 15 miles east of Johnstown, were interrupted and all roads were jammed for miles by traffic. State motor police and deputy sheriffs were hurriedly mobilized to handle the situation, as crowds of weeping women and children gathered about the mouth of the mine.

A score of ambulances were parked near the pit and in nearby Portage a temporary morgue was set up.

U. S. Considering New Protectorate

Proposes to Manage European Possessions Here

SANTIAGO, Chile — (AP) — Foreign Minister Cristobal Saenz disclosed Tuesday he has received and is studying a note from the United States on the establishment of a protectorate over European possessions in central and South America.

Details of the communication were not immediately forthcoming.

Jap Cabinet Quits, Bowing to the Army

TOKYO — (AP) — Premier Admiral Mitsumasa Yonai handed his whole cabinet's resignation to Emperor Hirohito Tuesday night, apparently under army pressure for stronger enforcement of Japan's "new order in East Asia" policy.

Most Japanese newspapers expected former Premier Prince Konoye to be asked to form a new cabinet.

Harris to Open at Washington Friday

To Fire Opening Gun for Congress in Old Home County

Oren Harris, prosecuting attorney of El Dorado and candidate for congress in the Seventh district, will open his congressional campaign this Friday night, July 19, in his native county of Hempstead—speaking at Washington.

The announcement was made from his campaign headquarters at El Dorado. W. Bradley Trimble, native of Washington, now an El Dorado attorney, is in charge of Mr. Harris' speaking arrangements.

Harris campaign headquarters are in the Mason building, El Dorado, with Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Agnes Perry in charge.

Complete sound equipment will accompany Mr. Harris on his speaking tour of the 11 South Arkansas counties comprising the Seventh congressional district, the equipment being in charge of Jimmy Brosch of Camden.

Mr. Harris was born and reared in this county, leaving about 10 years ago to practice law at El Dorado, where he subsequently was elected prosecutor of the 13th judicial district, now completing his second term.

A large attendance of Harris supporters from all over the district is expected in Washington Friday night to hear the candidate fire the opening gun of the campaign.

Andres Case Is Given to the Jury

Jury to Rule on Community Ice Co. Liability

In Hempstead circuit court Tuesday the case of J. S. Andres vs. Southern Ice company and Community Ice company, went to the jury shortly after noon with an instructed verdict for the Southern Ice company leaving the jury to decide for or against the Community Ice company.

Andres sought $3,000 judgment for alleged breach of contract while employed by the Community Ice company last year.

The trial is in its second day.

Pilkinton Invited to Capitol Meet

At the Department of Justice Building August 5-6

State Senator James H. Pilkinton of Hope has been invited to Washington D. C., to participate as a delegate to a conference of officials being called together to discuss methods of coordinating the policies and activities of the Federal and State Governments with respect to law enforcement problems of immediate interest related to national defense.

The conference is to be held in cooperation with the Department of Justice and is being called by the Council of State Governments, the National Association of Attorneys-Generals, and the Interstate Commission on Crime. It will meet on Monday and Tuesday, August 5th and 6th, 1940, at the Department of Justice Building, Washington, D. C.

The invitation sent out by the Justice Department stated, "Because of the immediacy of the problems involved it has been deemed advisable to hold the conference at this early date. The present situation demands cooperation between the Federal and State Gov-

(Continued on Page Three)

Liquor Firm and Its Heads Abandon Not Guilty Pleas

Plead No Defense in U. S. Conspiracy Trial, Fort Smith

5 ARE EFFECTED

President, Director-Attorney and 3 of Its Agents

FORT SMITH — (AP) — Southwestern Distilled Products, Inc., Arkansas rectifying firm described by the government as having done a multi-million-dollar liquor business at its West Memphis and Sulphur Springs branches in 1939, Tuesday pleaded nolo contendere—offering no defense—to a federal grand jury indictment charging conspiracy to transport whiskey into dry Oklahoma and Kansas.

The corporation's two principal officers—Clyde Collins, president, and Henry Humphreys, director and attorney, both of Memphis, also pleaded nolo contendere to the conspiracy indictment, withdrawing their earlier pleas of innocent.

Three principal agents of the firm, named in the same indictment, also withdrew innocent pleas and pleaded guilty. They are: Paul Campbell, manager of the West Memphis branch; James Cole, former manager of the Sulphur Springs branch; and George Dixon, described as associated with the Sulphur Springs operations.

Selection of a jury was completed after a two-hour examination of 31 veniremen.

Charge Is Outlined

FORT SMITH, Ark. — (AP) — United States Prosecutor C. R. Barry charged in a bill of particulars filed in United States District Court Monday night that State Revenue Commissioner Z. M. McCarroll, and others, had used the commissioner's official position to assist Southwestern Distilled Products, Inc., rectifying firm, to conduct an illicit business in nearby dry states, that the company had been granted special favors by the state, and that the conspiracy involved a pay-off, described by Barry as "a stated consideration each month."

The particularization charged: That on or about March 1, 1939, Henry E. Humphreys and Clyde Collins, officials of Southwestern, also named in the conspiracy indictment, met with David S. Sherman, Little Rock wholesale liquor company manager, another defendant, and discussed a plan for shipping liquor into Kansas and Oklahoma, from company branches at West Memphis and Sulphur Springs.

That these three then conferred with Mr. House and that Mr. House "undertook and promised to procure Z. M. McCarroll and Butler Toland to permit Southwestern to make deliveries of liquor in conveyances other than those required by the laws of the state of Arkansas."

That Mr. House further undertook to obtain rectifying permits from Mr. McCarroll for the Sulphur Springs branch, and to get Mr. McCarroll and Mr. Toland "to create and to assist in the creation of a monopoly for the aforesaid conspirators in Arkansas by rectifying plants in Arkansas."

That Mr. House and Mr. Sherman undertook to have the state Revenue Department not to require the Southwestern corporation to pay the $3.36 per case state liquor tax required to be paid by all wholesalers, and to have the department ignore its regulations providing that all exports should be in accordance with federal law and regulations.

"Payoff" Is Charged

"That in consideration of these undertakings," Sherman, Dixon, Cole, Campbell, Humphreys and Collins "agreed and conspired together to pay to the said J. W. House, Z. M. McCarroll and Butler Toland, large sums of money, to-wit: A stated consideration each month," the money to be "divided equally between the said J. W. House and Z. M. McCarroll."

That money subsequently was paid to Mr. House and Mr. McCarroll, and that Mr. McCarroll and Mr. Toland disregarded and ignored state laws and regulations pertaining to liquor, that the Revenue Department refused to issue rectifying permits to other "bona fide applicants" and that the alleged conspirators caused McCarroll, Toland "and the deputies, inspectors, investigators and other employees of the revenue commissioner and other state officers to permit transportation of liquor through Arkansas and into Kansas and Oklahoma" in private automobiles.

That the alleged conspirators caused Mr. McCarroll and Mr. Toland to assign Revenue Department deputies, inspectors and agents to assist officers

(Continued on Page Three)

In Spotlight as Democratic Politicos Gather at Chicago

William Orville Douglas

Amiable, lanky William Orville Douglas, named to the Supreme Court at 40, is only 41 now. Born at Maine, Minn., he moved to Washington state with his family when he was 5, attended Whitman College. He taught school for two years, then went east, worked his way through law school. He became an instructor at Columbia law school, late at Yale. His writings attracted attention and he went to Washington as S. E. C. chairman.

Burton Kendall Wheeler

Burton Kendall Wheeler of Montana, born in Hudson, Mass., 58 years ago, studied at Michigan University, went west and started law practice in Butte. He was elected to the Montana legislature, later served as federal district attorney. Elected to the U. S. Senate in 1922, he aided colleague Thomas J. Walsh in Teapot Dome investigation, was indicted for malfeasance on charges later proved to be trumped up. He is an isolationist.

Mildred Riddle Douglas

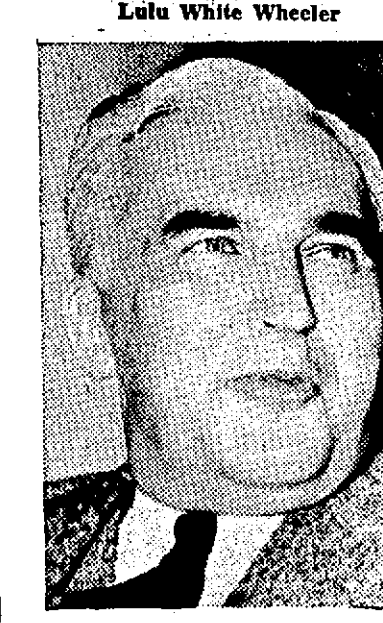

Lulu White Wheeler

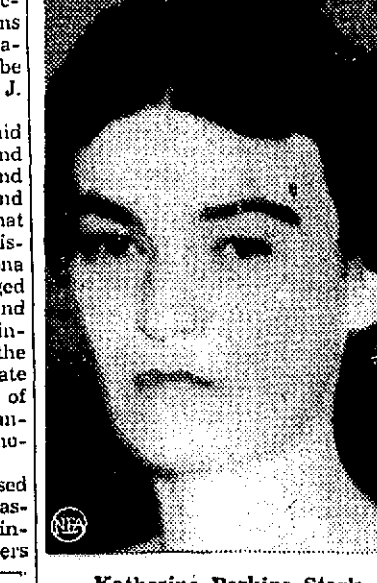

Lloyd Crow Stark

Descended from a family which had been orchardists and soldiers for two centuries, Lloyd Crow Stark won his first public office at the end of a carefully mapped, eight-year campaign. A banquet speaker in 1928 suggested Stark might be a good governor for Missouri; eight years later he was elected. A graduate of Annapolis, he resigned from the navy to look after his father's nursery business. He saw action in the World War, is now 53.

Paul Vorles McNutt

Paul Vorles McNutt has been a capable politician ever since his days at the University of Indiana, where he was senior class president. Born at Franklin, Ind., 45 years ago, he became national commander of the American Legion. He has been successively law school dean at Indiana, governor of the state, U. S. high commissioner to the Philippines, and federal security administrator. He has supported the New Deal.

Katherine Perkins Stark

Kathleen Timolat McNutt

Tradition Broken, View of Cabinet Member Perkins

Secretary of Labor Addresses Women at Convention

NEGROES FOR F. D.

8 Out of 10 Will Support Him, Says Negro Congressman

CHICAGO STADIUM — (AP) — A member of President Roosevelt's cabinet openly forecast his nomination for a third term Tuesday while Democratic delegates pushed their convention through more gusts of oratory before actual balloting begins Thursday.

Secretary of Labor Perkins told a breakfast gathering several thousand women.

"We are about to break tradition, and nominate a man for a third term." The delegates moved into the big convention hall with their ears keenly attuned for any sound from the White House—but such came to them emerged only through cabinet members or administration subordinates.

Rep. Arthur Mitchell, Illinois, only negro congressman, told the sparsely-attended mid-day convention session that eight out of every ten negroes will vote in November or the party "whose banner I hope and pray will be carried by that great humanitarian, Franklin D. Roosevelt."

"The big feature of Tuesday's official program was an address by the permanent chairman, Senator Barkley of Kentucky, scheduled for 2 p. m."

Third Term Breach

CHICAGO — (AP) — The half-concealed animosity between James A. Farley's supporters and ardent third termers burst into the open Monday night.

During a bitter discussion within the delegation from Massachusetts, which the Democratic national chairman had counted on as a source of strength in the presidential balloting, Delegate Clem Norton of Boston shouted: "Mr. Farley is a money candidate. I want the world to know where I stand, with Roosevelt."

Ed A. Carroll, Democratic national committeeman of Washington state, said several delegations resented "the treatment being accorded" Farley.

He said the Washington delegation, instructed to support Mr. Roosevelt, "has been approached by a number of instructed delegations as to the possibility of violating instructions in the event the Democratic organization is pushed out of the picture."

"Many of the delegations," he said, "have remarked that they would rather go down to defeat than disapprove, and if the tactics of some of those who presume to be speaking for the organization and administration are not guided they will cause additional unrest in the convention. In other words, anything may happen."

During the meeting of the Massachusetts group, Chairman William H. Burke Jr. said the delegation was pledged to Farley with the reservation it would be for Roosevelt if the president sought nomination. It appeared that Farley would get only six to 10 of Massachusetts' 34 votes.

Bankhead Keynote

CHICAGO STADIUM — (AP) — Calling for an aggressive campaign on the "record" of performance Speaker William B. Bankhead voiced Monday night a 1940 Democratic keynote of uncompromising resistance to "malignant" aggressors abroad and assailed the Republican platform as "political subterfuge."

He spoke a few minutes after Chairman James A. Farley of the Democratic National Committee, delivering an address which sounded to some like a formal farewell to his party colleagues, denounced Republican leaders for "an effort" to "pin the odious label 'war party' upon the Democratic party."

Both speakers addressed a crowd which packed the big red, white, and blue decked stadium to the rafters. The seating capacity exceeds 20,000.

The addresses closed a day which had seen third term leaders considering a plan to win renomination for President Roosevelt without so much

(Continued on Page Three)

COTTON

NEW YORK — (AP) — October cotton opened at 9.43, closed 9.51. Middling spot 10.56.

SOCIETY

Daisy Dorothy Heard, Editor Telephone 768

Social Calendar

Tuesday, July 16th
Ruth Sunday school class of the First Baptist Church, home of Mrs. Nathan Harbor on West Fifth street, 7:30 p. m.
Wednesday, July 17th
Kappay Neel looking club, home of Mrs. A. B. Patten, 9:30 a. m.

Announcement

All persons having shrubbery at the Cemetery are asked by the members of the Association to have it inspected immediately for caterpillars. A great deal of damage is being done by these harmful insects.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Powell Fete

Texarkana Couple
Miss Betty Newbury and Lloyd Stevens of Texarkana, whose marriage will be an important event of July 21st, were complimented on Monday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Powell entertained at a perfectly appointed dinner at the Barlow.

The dining table was covered with a beautiful white damask cloth and was centered with a crystal bowl of tube roses and double cornflowers placed on a reflector, and flanked by crystal candelabra burning slender white tapers.

Covers were laid for, Miss Newbury, tapers.
Mr. Stevens, Miss Dimples Black, Floyd Stevens, Mrs. Lilye Newbury, Frank Neel of Independence, Missouri, Miss Mary Catherine Lewis, Billy Patterson, all of Texarkana and Mr. and Mrs. Powell.

Blocker-Pate

In a simple ceremony attended by a small group of relatives and friends, Miss Mary Ellen Pate became the bride of Dana A. Blocker at 4 o'clock Sunday, July 14th, in the parlors of the First Methodist church, of Texarkana. The Rev. Aubrey Walton, pastor of the church officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

Following a reception, the bridal couple left for a wedding trip without revealing their destination. After their return they will be at home at the Stratford apartments, Sixth and Ash streets.

The bride was graduated from the Texarkana schools and received her B. A. degree from Henderson State Teachers' College at Arkadelphia. After teaching in the schools of Amity, Ark., she was a teacher in the Arkansas Junior high school.

Mr. Blocker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Blocker of Nash, Texas. He was graduated from the Texarkana schools and attended Texarkana Junior College. He is now a member of the editorial staff of the Texarkana Gazette and News.

Mrs. Blocker is the sister of Mrs. J. H. Jones of Hope, and spent most of her early childhood in this city.

Circle No. 7 of the W. M. S. of the First Baptist Meets With Mrs. Lewis

The members of Circle No. 7 of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Olin Lewis on East Second street.

Mrs. Henry Haynes led the missionary study, and the business session was presided over by Mrs. Nalson Wylie.

The hostess served a delicious iced course to the seven members present.

July Meeting of the W. M. S. of the First Christian Church

The W. M. S. of the First Christian church held its July meeting at the church on Monday afternoon, with Circle No. 1 in charge of the program.

Mrs. Earnest Graham opened the meeting with prayer and presided at the short business session.

The program opened with the singing of the Hymn "Count Your Many Blessings," followed by the inspiring devotional by Mrs. John K. Gregory.

Mrs. Jim Cullipher gave a paper on the Convention in the Philippines. It was a summary and discussion on the question of how people might be able to help the shifting population.

The meeting closed with the benediction and adjourned to meet again in August.

Mrs. Flohoy Moses Entertains Baptist Circle

Mrs. I. T. Urrey led the meeting of Circle No. 6 of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Flohoy Moses.

The program was from the "Parables of Jesus." Mrs. P. J. Holt gave the mission study from the sixth chapter.

At the conclusion of the meeting the hostess served a delicious iced course to seven members and one guest, Mrs. Marion Monroe.

Y. W. A. Has Yearly Mission Study at the Baptist Church

The members of the Y. W. A. of the First Baptist Church met at the Church Monday for the annual mission study class. Thirty-one members responded to the roll call.

After a delightful picnic supper, the group assembled for the study led by Mrs. Henry Haynes, Mrs. Hugh Jones, Mrs. W. R. Hamilton, and Mrs. Fred Formby. Hymns were sung when the lessons had been completed and a midnight supper was served at a local tearoom.

The group had a "slumber party" at the Educational Building.

Mrs. John Owen Entertains Members Of Circle 4 of the W. M. S.

Thirteen members responded to the roll call at the meeting of Circle No. 4 of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church at the home of Mrs. John Owen.

The meeting was opened by the circle leader, Mrs. Albert Jewell and after a short business session, the program was turned over to Mrs. Fred Formby, who led the mission study. The members then took a short examination.

During the social hour, the hostess served delicious cream and cake to the guests.

Mrs. Hugh Jones Entertains Circles 1 and 5 of the Baptist Church

In the absence of the leader, Mrs. Hugh Jones led the meeting of Circles 1 and 5 of the W. M. S. of the First Baptist church.

After the regular routine of business, Mrs. F. L. Padgett was introduced. She gave the regular lesson "Labors in the Vineyard" from the book, "Stewardship Parables of Jesus."

At the conclusion of the study, the hostess served delicious punch and cookies to eleven members and one guest, Mrs. L. F. Higgason, who is the president of all of the circles.

Personal Mention

A number of Hope friends and relatives of Miss Evelyn Greene of Little Rock have noted that she is now writing a column, "Hollywood Hi-De Ho" in the "Arkansas Democrat."

Miss Greene is the debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Greene, former residents of Hope. She received her degree from the University of Arkansas where she majored in Journalism. Her social sorority is Chi Omega.

Mrs. Cecil Weaver is spending Tuesday in Pine Bluff, where she is attending the state meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Mrs. J. T. West has as guest this week, Miss Eleanor Jane Feikl of Little Rock.

Mrs. C. C. Spragins left Monday for a three weeks stay at Chattanooga, New York. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. J. S. Ragland of Texarkana.

Miss Mary Janette Jobe has returned to Little Rock after a visit with her mother, Mrs. Sarah S. Jobe and other friends in the city.

Miss Christene Wagner, Mrs. Huston T. Ward, and Mrs. Joe Barham of Louisville were Saturday visitors in the city.

Miss Dorris Urrey has as guest Miss Frances Mark of Waldo.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hicks and two children, Gail and Jacqueline, have returned from a trip to Memphis, Helena, and Forest City. While in Forest City, Miss Jacqueline Hicks was the honoree at a delightful party given for twenty of her young friends by Mrs. E. J. Bernauer.

Mrs. Earnest O'Neal is in Pine Bluff to attend the American Legion Auxiliary convention.

Mrs. M. M. McCloughan is among the Hope ladies attending the Legion Auxiliary convention in Pine Bluff.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Nelson and daughter, Dolores, of Texarkana were Sunday guests of Mr. Nelson's sister, Mrs. Franklin Horton and Mr. Horton.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Gunter and Mr. and Mrs. Red Luck left Monday for Pine Bluff to attend the Legion conventions.

Youngest Set Now Has Designs on the Adult Bathing Suit Styles

A tiny beach addict in a trim little swim suit of the same blue-ruffled-petunias-on-white print which is used to fashion bathing suits for grown-up girls.

Except that it is skitless, this attractive one-piece maillot for a child to wear on the beach is a copy of a suit for adults. The print—red coconut palms on white—is as becoming to a little girl as to an older woman.

Mads of Hollywood designed this chic printed swim suit of spun silk and cotton with bra top and half skirt. The background is snow white, the coconut palm design in shades of red.

Her head in an improvised sun-shade, her figure smartly encased in a one-piece, short-skirted swim suit of printed spun silk and cotton, she takes a snooze on the beach at the Coral Casino, Santa Barbara.

THE STANDINGS

Southern Association

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Nashville	53	31	.631
Atlanta	54	35	.607
Memphis	45	39	.536
Chattanooga	47	41	.534
Little Rock	37	49	.430
New Orleans	37	49	.430
Birmingham	36	48	.429
Knoxville	34	51	.400

Monday's Results

Little Rock 1-5; Birmingham, 2-1.
Nashville 7, Chattanooga 6, 11 innings.

Games Tuesday

Little Rock at Memphis.
Atlanta at Chattanooga.
Knoxville at Nashville.
Birmingham at New Orleans.

National League

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Cincinnati	51	24	.680
Brooklyn	48	27	.640
New York	42	32	.568
Chicago	42	40	.512
St. Louis	32	41	.438
Pittsburgh	32	42	.432
Boston	27	44	.380
Philadelphia	25	49	.338

Monday's Results

Chicago 5, New York 3.
Cincinnati 3, Philadelphia 2.
St. Louis 12, Pittsburgh 1-4.

Games Tuesday

Boston at St. Louis.
Brooklyn at Pittsburgh.
New York at Chicago.
Philadelphia at Cincinnati.

American League

Teams	W.	L.	Pct.
Detroit	47	30	.610
Cleveland	48	31	.608
Boston	45	33	.577
New York	41	35	.539
Chicago	35	39	.473
Washington	33	46	.416
St. Louis	33	50	.398
Philadelphia	31	47	.397

Chicago 3, New York 2.
Boston 10, St. Louis 6.
Detroit 9, Philadelphia 8.
Washington 8, Cleveland 6.

Games Tuesday

Chicago at New York.
Cleveland at Washington.
Detroit at Philadelphia.
St. Louis at Boston.

After viewing hundreds of pictures, many Britons feel Chamberlain's tight-furled umbrella is open only to criticism.

illary convention.

—O—

Mrs. M. M. McCloughan is among the Hope ladies attending the Legion Auxiliary convention in Pine Bluff.

—O—

Mr. and Mrs. J. Nelson and daughter, Dolores, of Texarkana were Sunday guests of Mr. Nelson's sister, Mrs. Franklin Horton and Mr. Horton.

—O—

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Gunter and Mr. and Mrs. Red Luck left Monday for Pine Bluff to attend the Legion conventions.

Elberta Harvest Begins This Week

Capacity Crowd Throng Nashville for Harvest

NASHVILLE — With completion of the harvesting of the crop of Beauty peaches in the Highland district, orchardists now have a breathing spell of a few days before beginning the harvesting of the big crop of Elberta peaches, the principal peach crop of the district.

During the movement of the crop of Beauties, 109 car loads were shipped from here by rail the balance of the crop being moved by trucks. During the same time six cars of tomatoes and three cars of cucumbers have been shipped, and many cars of cucumbers have been brought to the brine station of Standard Brands, Inc., here.

Sales offices have been opened here by a number of the larger fruit dealers, and preparations are being made for the expeditious handling of the Elberta crop, which is expected to start moving during the week. Some orchardists had thought their fruit would be ready to harvest the last of last week, but few were ready at that time. The extra color of the Elbertas this year has given rise to expectations of an earlier harvest than will be had.

There will be several cash buyers

Tradition Broken

(Continued from Page One)

as placing his name in formal nomination.

Much attention was attracted by Farley's closing paragraph, so great has been the speculation whether he would follow his own well-known desires and retire from the party chairmanship or continue to direct what may be President Roosevelt's third campaign for the presidency. Farley has opposed a third term.

"Mine," he said, "has been a happy service," and he went on to thank party workers.

Bankhead said "we do not propose to appease those aggressors whose doctrines wage war upon every principle of liberty" and called for rapid construction of a strong national defense.

That Japanese admiral who visited the Philippines to inquire after health of his countrymen there hoped to find them not only well—but active.

on the market again this year, most of their fruit to go by rail to far away markets.

Extra sales forces and extra railroad workers have swelled the crowd in the city to the point where hotel accommodations are insufficient, and people here for the harvest are being taken into the private homes for the season. By the last of the week, it is expected the full force of out-of-town workers will be here.

Arcadia's Melon Shed Is Reopened

Community Organization to Handle Shipments

The co-operative Arcadia cantaloupe shed eight miles north-west of Prescott has been reorganized and will handle produce this season.

This is a community organization and everyone in that section is invited to ship their cantaloupes through the shed. The crops are shipped by truck and rail.

Sales manager Walter Mitchell and Secretary Clifford Huskey announced that plenty of storage space is available to protect crops from the weather and urged that all farmers take advantage of this service.

Bowen, Griffin to Address Kiwanians

The Hope Kiwanis club will meet Wednesday noon at Hotel Barlow with R. P. Bowen, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and R. E. Griffin manager of Feeders Supply Company as guest speakers.

All Kiwanians are urged to attend as several subjects of local interest will be discussed.

Blacktop Road to Experiment Farm

Completed and Added to State System as No. 174

The connecting road from Highway 67 to the University of Arkansas Fruit and Truck Branch Experiment Station has recently been blacktopped and incorporated into the state highway system as Highway 174. This long needed improvement satisfies an obligation to the University which resulted from the removal of Highway 67 from the local experiment station several years ago. This road not only serves the station but considerable traffic from old Highway 67 and several feeder roads extending into the northern part of the county.

The permanent improvements were made as a joint project by the State Highway Department and the WPA. Concrete bridges were installed and the grade improved by the WPA last fall, and the standard 18 foot blacktop surface has just been completed by the Highway Department under the direction of Major I. P. Shelby, local district engineer.

This permanent and attractive road is a credit to this section and makes the local state experiment station conveniently accessible at all times to the large number of local and out of state visitors. The officials of the station plan to improve the landscape along the new road and convert it into a scenic drive. In order to identify the road with the experiment station, it has been locally designated as "The Experiment Station Drive."

Colorado People Pick Rodeo Queen

A Fued's a - Brewing Away Out West — Over Gals

By ROBERT GEIGER.
AP Feature Service Writer.
COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. — A fued's a brewin' out west where every rodeo has a queen.

"The way most of these shows choose their queens is all cockeyed," says Willard Hanes, secretary of the Colorado Springs rodeo. "They crown 'em because they're good looking or because they happen to be the mayor's daughter, even if they can't stick on a rocking horse."

"The queen of the rodeo has certain definite duties. She must ride in parades, greet crowds, give the grandstands a thrill, and, on top of it all, she has to be easy on the eyes."

"So from now on we are choosing queens on merits, not pretty faces alone. They've got to be cow-gals, or the equal of cow-gals in performing their stunts. And they have to be good mixers and good lookers. We are not going to have girls posing as cow-gals and then put them off in the arena and have them fall off a pony."

"We're calling our 1940 queen 'The Girl of the West' and we're going to keep on calling her that until some other outfit turns up with a girl who can prove she has more on the ball."

Evening Shade Will Hold Meet July 29

The Rev. Gilbert Copeland of the Church of Christ, Hope will begin a revival meeting at Evening Shade church, seven miles south of Hope on highway 28, Monday, July 23. The public is invited.

Work Begins on Christian Church

Improvements Will Cost Approximately $5,000

Plans for construction of a new Sunday school building and remodeling the First Christian church at an approximate cost of $5,000 got underway Tuesday when workmen started tearing down the old Sunday school building.

Many persons have expressed their desire to donate a day's work and anyone wanting to help is asked to get in touch with the building committee or report at the church Thursday morning.

8 Hempstead Boys

(Continued from Page One)

man and all the others are basic or first year men. Cranford, Simms and Bowles are assigned to Co. C; Revels and Bland to Co. D; and Bright, Bundy and Walkup to Co. B.

Bright is on the Company softball team; Bundy and Walkup on the swimming team.

Lt. Royce Weisenberger, Inf.-Res., also of Hope, and a member of the State Legislature from Hempstead county, is on active duty as an Army officer attached to Co. B. He is acting as a Regimental lecturer and Company instructor on the subject of "Citizenship," a matter receiving considerably added stress in the CMTC course of instruction in 1940. Lt. Weisenberger is Co. B athletic officer and to date his softball and baseball teams are undefeated and are strong contenders for the camp championship.

Approximately 800 young men are enrolled in the 30 days of CMTC training. Out of this number, 60 are "Blues," or fourth year men, most of whom will complete the required military examinations and correspondence courses and become commissioned officers in the Reserve Corps. Many of them plan to immediately apply for active duty with the regular army, once they are commissioned.

Pilkinton Invited

(Continued from Page One)

ernments in matters of law enforcement and in the prevention of activities which tend to obstruct the program of national defense."

Senator Pilkinton is a member of the Arkansas Senate's Committee on Interstate Cooperation. The membership of this committee is being invited to represent Arkansas at this conference.

Liquor Firm and

(Continued from Page One)

and employees of Southwestern "in the operation of their business by under taking to apprehend purchasers of liquor from places and wholesalers other than Southwestern," and that the Southwestern officials conspired with Defendants McCarroll and Toland to secure release of all purchases of liquor from Southwestern when said purchasers were apprehended by state, city or county officials."

That McCarroll, Toland, House and Sherman "aided, abetted, counseled and procured the falsification of records required by the laws of the United States to be kept," and aided in the "unlawful shipment of unlabeled packages."

At last we have a woman candidate for President, but if she's elected, who will there be to travel the U. S. and support youth movements?

One can imagine, facing things squarely, there would be quite a lot of chinning going on at a meeting of President Roosevelt and Mussolini.

Is That You, Dear?

MILWAUKEE—(P)—Mr. and Mrs. Gust Kolo kept a date by two accidents. They arranged to meet at a baseball diamond after a game in which Gust was to play. He was hit behind the ear by a pitched ball and was taken to a hospital. Mrs. Kolo, on her way to the field, was in an automobile collision and was taken to the same hospital. They met there.

SOOTHES MOROLINE

WORLD'S LARGEST SELLER AT 5¢

MILK SHAKES in FROZEN GLASSES with Cookies. 15¢

AIR CONDITIONED

Back Ralph

DIAMOND CAFE

-- Peaches --

Send a Friend or Customer a bushel of

ARKANSAS FAMOUS ELBERTA PEACHES

HARVEST STARTS JULY 20th

We Specialize in

HAND PICKED U. S. NO. 1 FANCY

OUR PEACHES TOOK FIRST PRIZE LAST FOUR PEACH FESTIVALS.

We prepay Express and render you bill with express receipt attached. Delivery guaranteed in first class condition.

$1.00 to $2.50
Per Bushel
Specify Grade

BARNEY SMITH
NASHVILLE, ARK.

666 MALARIA

checks in 7 days and relieves

COLDS

LIQUID-TABLETS. SALVE-NOSE DROPS. symptoms first day

Try "Rub-My-Tism"—a Wonderful Liniment

SAENGER-NOW

THIS GIRL FRIDAY

with RALPH BELLAMY

Thursday - Friday

South of PAGO-PAGO

with VICTOR MCGLOTHLIN

Joe Hall - Frances Farmer

Now in Progress

Our 16th ANNIVERSARY SALE

of DRESSES

NOW $1.16

LADIES

SPECIALTY SHOP

RIALTO - NOW

"CASTLE ON THE HUDSON"

— With —

JOHN GARFIELD

ANN SHERIDAN

— and —

GEORGE BRENT

"ADVENTURE IN DIAMONDS"

OUT OUR WAY

By J. R. Williams

STOP THAT! THE VERY IDEA, PULLING THE HAIRS OUT OF AN EXPENSIVE HORSEHAIR SOFA—NO WONDER IT'S GETTING AS HOLLOW-CHESTED AS A HAMMOCK!

-FEEL THEM—LAY DOWN ON IT ONCE! WHY, I'D SOONER LAY IN A BRIER PATCH! FEEL RIGHT HERE—I WONDER IF SHAVIN' IT WOULD MAKE IT COMFORTABLE!

THAT'S RIGHT, MA—YOU NEVER HAVE TIME TO LIE DOWN, SO YOU DON'T KNOW IT'S TERRIBLE—REMEMBER, WE HAVEN'T GOT ON WINTER UNDERWEAR NOW!

BORN THIRTY YEARS TOO SOON

J.R. WILLIAMS

T.M. REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.

Travelers Divide a Doubleheader

Barons Take the First Game 2-1, Drop Second 5-1

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — Birmingham and Little Rock divided this city's first twilight double-header here Monday night, the Barons winning the first game 2 to 1, and the Travelers the second, 5 to 1.

Under wet surroundings the teams went into action about 6:35, 20 minutes behind schedule, and got in one nine-inning contest and a six-inning affair, the second game being called shortly after 10 by agreement. The Barons had to catch a train for New Orleans.

Pete Naktens kicked in with a stellar job of left-handing in the first game to triumph against Bob Katz, who was no slouch of a right-hander himself. Naktens was hit harder, allowing nine blows to Katz's six, but was very good in the pinches. Fred Tauby's double in the third produced the Barons' runs.

Joe Vance encountered Fred Shaffer in the second game and was ahead 1-to-0 through the fourth. But the Travelers tied the score in the fifth and won in the sixth, when they tallied four times. Errors were quite helpful, letting in three runs. Paul Gehrmann relieved during the rally and was doing nicely until Russ Bevell kicked one for two runs.

BRUCE CHAPEL

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Parker announce the marriage of their daughter, Iva Nell to Lloyd Webb, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Webb of McCaskill, which took place Saturday night, July 13, at the home of Justice of Peace O. A. Reeves. Their many friends wish for them a long and happy future.

Mrs. Steve Garner, and daughter, Alice and Miss Mary June Goodson are spending a few days in the mountains picking blueberries.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Harper and family and Mrs. D. L. Stephens and daughter, Martha Lou, attended the annual singing at Belton Sunday.

We are very sorry to report the illness of Mrs. R. L. Tomlin's mother, Grandma Posey. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Shad Murders had as Saturday night guests, the Rev. Bob Oreck and the Rev. Mr. Short of Prescott, who have started a revival at the Fowler Pentecostal church.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Higgins and Miss Norma Coleman spent the week of the fourth, visiting in Shreveport, La.

Guy Higgins and W. J. Kassinger were Hope visitors Friday.

Mrs. Andy Folsom who has been ill for the past week is now recuperating.

We are glad to welcome to our community Mr. Cook and family of Shreveport, La., who have bought the Loveless place and are now residing there.

Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Gorham of McCaskill were the Saturday night guests of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lester York, and family.

We are very glad to report that little Wayne Harper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Harper, is much improved and has returned to his home, after spending several months in the hospital at Booneville.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Foster had as Sunday guests, Mr. Foster's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Foster and son, Darrell and Mrs. Harvey Livingston, all of Chidester.

Since early Christian times Bes-sarabia has been invaded by the Thracians, Goths, Huns, Avars, Bulgarians, Ugrians, Turks, Kumans, Mongols, Moldavians, Tatars and Russians.

LEGAL NOTICE Sealed bids will be received by the Board of Public Affairs of the City of Hope, Ark., until 10:00 o'clock A. M. July 18th, 1940, in the office of Roy Anderson, Purchasing Agent, for furnishing the following:

1. 600 feet of underground cable. 2. 1 pole type R.C.O.C. oil switch. 3. 1 pole type constant current retarding transformer.

Detailed specifications may be obtained from Chas. O. Thomas, Sup't. of the Hope Water and Light Plant.

The said Board of Public Affairs reserves the right to reject any and all bids and to accept the bid which in their judgment is to the best interest of the Hope Water and Light Plant.

W. S. Atkins, Mayor. Lloyd Spencer, Sec'y. Chas. E. Taylor.

G. E. HOTPOINT REFRIGERATORS Special Trade Allowance on Old Box HARRY W. SHIVER Plumbing Phone 259

Dry Cleaning

J. L. GREEN Dry Cleaning "We Know How"

Take NO Chances Keep that chipper-smart look to the pleats, ruffles, buttons that set-off your new style garments — with our Dry Cleaning's help! Our expert work preserves EVERY style-touch! Savingly!

Bahamas Glad About Windsor; Not Glad About Other News

The harbor of Nassau. Some of the many cays of the Bahamas are seen in the upper, left corner.

By THOMAS J. B. WENNER, NEA Service Special Correspondent

NASSAU, The Bahamas. — The normally placid and courteous Bahamian is not so placid these days. He is trying hard to remain courteous.

Most exciting—and welcome—news in years for the islands was appointment of the Duke of Windsor as governor-in-chief. Nearly everyone here predicts a big lift for the archipelago's social life and an even bigger boost for tourist trade from the U. S.

But the annexation talk is another matter. If Britain meets the fate of France, these closest of all British possessions off United States shore may go on the colonial "block." Report circulate here that plans before the U. S. Congress envisage a "deal" for cession of the Bahamas in consideration of outstanding war debt payments.

This riles Bahamians. Persons long resident in New Providence Island, center of economic and political activity, consider the Bahamas "most pro-British and anti-American of all British outposts in this hemisphere." The general attitude is pretty well summed up by this statement made to me by a gentleman of long and reputable standing in the archipelago:

"In the first place we don't recognize the justice of the war debt claims. The United States got into the last war very late. She was lucky not to lose more soldiers in France, trying to help stop Jerry from over-running Europe."

"Second, the Washington government is expected to live up to its New Deal principles. So far President Roosevelt has maintained an anti-imperialist policy in the West Indies and the Caribbean."

"Third, our large colored population would not stand for it. You couldn't get a baker's dozen to vote for any such proposal today, the war situation notwithstanding."

"In the final analysis, our islands are not for sale. Britain does not turn over the inhabitants of her colonies to the highest bidder. If Britain loses out in Europe the story may be different. But she hasn't lost the war yet."

British officialdom here appears to take an even more haughty and untouchable attitude—suggesting that the most delicate diplomatic maneuvering will have to be employed if the United States is to bring the Bahamas within the scope of western hemisphere "protective custody."

If Britain meets serious reversals in the final phase of the war, most Bahamians apparently would like to see some sort of guarantee by the U. S. and Latin American countries of archipelago neutrality in the western Atlantic—with full independence in domestic affairs.

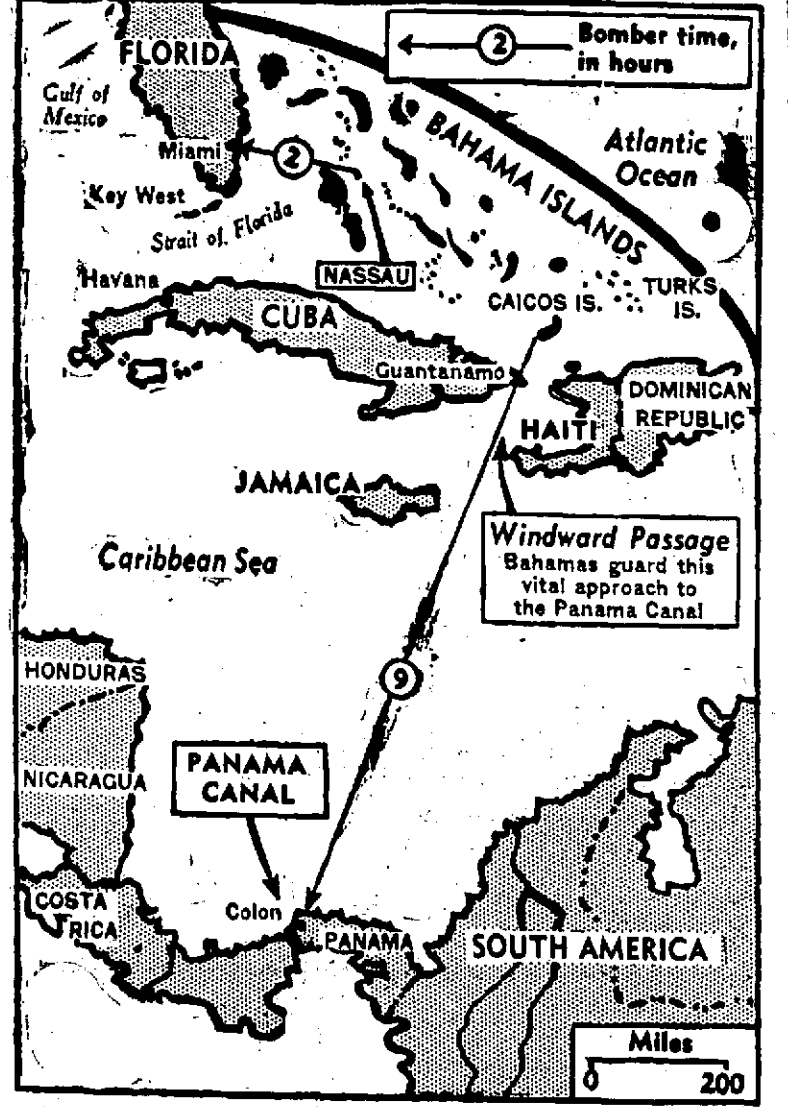

For the rest, the islands are not "for sale."

But the inhabitants of the Bahamas know on which side their bread is buttered. The economic well-being of the islands has always been the United States. Bahamian imports from the United States far outdistance those of Great Britain and Canada combined; reciprocally, Americans are the islands' largest customers.

The islands buy a great deal from the U. S., but they require a lucrative American tourist trade to pay for their imports.

This may seem like a one-sided deal but it is the sort of thing the U. S. will have to think more about if the Monroe Doctrine is to become more than a mouth-warming expression of American hopes.

Strategically, the islands are important. Nassau, the capital, is two hours flying time from Florida. Bimini, nearest island of the group, is less than 40 minutes by air from Miami.

Map shows how Bahama Islands shield approaches to southern Florida, the Gulf of Mexico, the Caribbean Sea and Panama Canal.

HARRISON IN HOLLYWOOD

By PAUL HARRISON, NEA Service Correspondent

War About Over for Newsreel Men, but Stars Plan to Bring Refugee Children to Safety

HOLLYWOOD — Behind the screen; so far as the newsreels are concerned, the war is about over. Most of the cameramen on the continent have gone to Spain and are waiting to return to America. Newsreel companies are refusing propaganda material offered by Germany and Italy, and hereafter expect to deal largely in pre-war news in the United States and activities in Canada.

Many of the top names of Hollywood are completing plans to bring large numbers of children here from England. There are dozens of estates and ranches which can be turned into camps for refugee kids. . . . Bette Davis has proposed a scheme to sell star autographs for the Red Cross—the signatures to be exchanged for stamps which would be on sale at every American theater. . . . And Harry Warner is leading a move to get Federal permission for a giant sweepstakes based on the big race at Santa Anita next winter. Proceeds for the Red Cross could amount to $10,000,000.

The islands stretch for more than 600 miles from Haiti to Florida. Even the passage to the Caribbean between Puerto Rico and the Dominican Republic might be jeopardized from easternmost points in the Bahamas.

Congress has taken steps to bolster present defense in the Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico and Cuba. Americans could feel safer if the Bahamian group were also brought inside the defense line.

How has the war affected the Bahamas? On the surface, very little. Life goes on in just about the same leisurely manner it has for centuries. But underneath the gloss of affluent tourist gaiety and native lethargy is a deep (if somewhat masked) official British gloom.

Tourist trade has fallen off considerably. Ship schedules have been sharply curtailed. The hope here is that virtual stoppage of European travel—plus the attraction of Edward and Wally—will bring increasing numbers of American tourists.

Patriotic fervor runs high. The islands have contributed 20,000 pounds to imperial defense, and a wartime insular "defense army" has been formed.

There is talk of fifth column activity, but there appears to be little menace in the islands. The population is approximately nine-tenths colored, and the natives have fared well under British rule.

Almost no German or Italian elements reside in the islands.

A fierce feud has broken out among the Marx brothers because piano-playing Chico got a bigger salary than just won't stand the strenuous dieting that a movie figure requires. For the role of Mrs. Knute Rockne, she had to take off 38 pounds. So Miss Page is going back to radio and mashed potatoes.

Some of the Chinese hit players in "The Letter" can't speak Chinese the way Hollywood thinks it should sound so they've been coached by a French technical director. . . . And Douglas McPhail is recording Irish ballads for "Little Nellie Kelly" under the tutelage of Romano Romani, Italian warbler. . . . Aben Kandel was turned down when he offered to work for nothing on the screen adaptation of his novel, "City for Conquest," and the job went to another writer. Now Kandel has been hired for a handsome fee to rewrite the rival writer's writings.

This is the only place on earth where a woman can create a sensation by going out evenings with her own husband. Marlene Dietrich and Rudolph Seiber have been doing that. . . . In the new Kay Kyser comedy, his chauffeur, butler, and cook will be played by Boris Karloff, Peter Lorre, and Bela Lugosi. The boogie-boys will burlesque their usual horror roles. . . . Eddy Duchin, who has been seriously studying dramatics, may appear as George Gershwin in the film Warners are preparing about the composer.

Simplest-living celebrity is Fred Allen. In New York he and his wife live in a three-room apartment; out here, they have a two-room place, no car, and no servants. It isn't that he's trying to save money, either, because Paramount's paying all expenses while Allen co-stars with Jack Benny in "Love Thy Neighbor." . . . In the flicker, incidentally, Benny will play a theatrical producer in love with his star, Mary Martin. But Allen will be Miss Martin's legal guardian and, having a very low opinion of Mr. Benny, will try to thwart the match.

Married Men in Guard May Resign

Requirements Relaxed in View Extended Service

WASHINGTON —(AP)—The War Department and state military officials acted Sunday to ease personal complications confronting the 50,000 National Guardsmen facing probable mobilization.

State adjutants general have been advised to permit married men in the lower ranks to resign if they are unwilling to respond to an order for extended active training duty such as contemplated by President Roosevelt.

A movement among employers to give limited leaves of absence to men summoned by the army or navy promised to cushion the personal difficulties.

Under the new policy governing service in the National Guard only single men will fill the three lowest ranks of private, corporal and sergeant. Married men already in these ranks will be permitted to resign. The policy does not apply to the higher enlisted ranks of master, staff and technical sergeant which carry pay considered sufficient to provide for dependents.

Under the new policy governing service in the National Guard only single men will fill the three lowest ranks of private, corporal and sergeant. Married men already in these ranks will be permitted to resign. The policy does not apply to the higher enlisted ranks of master, staff and technical sergeant which carry pay considered sufficient to provide for dependents.

Coming and Going Miner Makes Profit

HALIFAX COURT HOUSE, N. C. —(AP)—His neighbors thought H. W. Passavant was making a mistake four years ago when he gave up his modest machine shop and started a gold mine. Today few wouldn't trade places with him.

There were other gold mines in Halifax county, some inactive, and about $3,000,000 had been taken out. He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

Saenger — Tuesday and Wednesday

"His Girl Friday"

years ago when he gave up his modest machine shop and started a gold mine. Today few wouldn't trade places with him.

There were other gold mines in Halifax county, some inactive, and about $3,000,000 had been taken out. He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

He worked alone with a mercury and serpent. But Passavant, who thought he had found a vein of ore, was without mining experience. He read up on geology, then bought a second-hand rock crusher for $5.

Library to Have Children's Hour

Story-Telling Hour to Be Held 2 Days Each Week

Officials of the Hope-Hempstead county library board announced Monday that a special story-telling hour for children under 14 years of age will be held from 9:30 to 10:30 o'clock on Tuesday and Thursday of each week at the city hall.

The story-telling hour will be under the supervision of the librarian and all Hempstead county children are invited.

Collection of Pipes Disperses State Dignity

LINCOLN, Neb.—(AP)—Governor R. L. Cochran likes to maintain informality in his executive office and believes the dozen or so pipes he keeps on his desk helps clear the air.

"I've noticed that a stranger usually glances at the luxurious furnishings and lightens up, but once he spies these disarming pipes he's all right," Cochran explained.

The governor's pipe collecting is not a hobby. "My Scotch instinct won't let me throw any of them away," he explains. "One came from London, one from Sweden, and others from many states. Several are gifts."

Cochran has about 30, half of them at home. The only pipe he ever lost was the one he prized most. He bought it in England while serving as an artillery captain in the World war and lost it after his return home. He prefers straight stem models, but has one well worn, curved-stem cornucob.

Estimates of the London County Council for 1940-41 provide $9,000,000 ($40,440,000) for maintenance of civil defense.

amalgam system of taking gold from ore. What he profits is his own business, but Clifton C. Daugherty, a state assayer, says "that little mine nets him a lot more than any machine shop I've seen around these parts."

Now Passavant plans to install a cyanide plant to refine all the crushed ore. And he expects that for every $1,000 he already has made he will recover $1,000 more.

Now Passavant plans to install a cyanide plant to refine all the crushed ore. And he expects that for every $1,000 he already has made he will recover $1,000 more.

Now Passavant plans to install a cyanide plant to refine all the crushed ore. And he expects that for every $1,000 he already has made he will recover $1,000 more.

Now Passavant plans to install a cyanide plant to refine all the crushed ore. And he expects that for every $1,000 he already has made he will recover $1,000 more.

Now Passavant plans to install a cyanide plant to refine all the crushed ore. And he expects that for every $1,000 he already has made he will recover $1,000 more.

Now Passavant plans to install a cyanide plant to refine all the crushed ore. And he expects that for every $1,000 he already has made he will recover $1,000 more.

Now Passavant plans to install a cyanide plant to refine all the crushed ore. And he expects that for every $1,000 he already has made he will recover $1,000 more.

Now Passavant plans to install a cyanide plant to refine all the crushed ore. And he expects that for every $1,000 he already has made he will recover $1,000 more.

Now Passavant plans to install a cyanide plant to refine all the crushed ore. And he expects that for every $1,000 he already has made he will recover $1,000 more.

Now Passavant plans to install a cyanide plant to refine all the crushed ore. And he expects that for every $1,000 he already has made he will recover $1,000 more.

Now Passavant plans to install a cyanide plant to refine all the crushed ore. And he expects that for every $1,000 he already has made he will recover $1,000 more.

Now Passavant plans to install a cyanide plant to refine all the crushed ore. And he expects that for every $1,000 he already has made he will recover $1,000 more.

Now Passavant plans to install a cyanide plant to refine all the crushed ore. And he expects that for every $1,000 he already has made he will recover $1,000 more.

Now Passavant plans to install a cyanide plant to refine all the crushed ore. And he expects that for every $1,000 he already has made he will recover $1,000 more.

Now Passavant plans to install a cyanide plant to refine all the crushed ore. And he expects that for every $1,000 he already has made he will recover $1,000 more.

Now Passavant plans to install a cyanide plant to refine all the crushed ore. And he expects that for every $1,000 he already has made he will recover $1,000 more.

Now Passavant plans to install a cyanide plant to refine all the crushed ore. And he expects that for every $1,000 he already has made he will recover $1,000 more.

Now Passavant plans to install a cyanide plant to refine all the crushed ore. And he expects that for every $1,000 he already has made he will recover $1,000 more.

Now Passavant plans to install a cyanide plant to refine all the crushed ore. And he expects that for every $1,000 he already has made he will recover $1,000 more.

Now Passavant plans to install a cyanide plant to refine all the crushed ore. And he expects that for every $1,000 he already has made he will recover $1,000 more.

Now Passavant plans to install a cyanide plant to refine all the crushed ore. And he expects that for every $1,000 he already has made he will recover $1,000 more.

Now Passavant plans to install a cyanide plant to refine all the crushed ore. And he expects that for every $1,000 he already has made he will recover $1,000 more.